Regular monthly meeting of the Pioneer Building & Loan Association tonight.

Gents' furnishings of all kinds at S. Ozaki's big store, Waverley block, Hotel street.

Miss Kanoho sings and Corneter Kreuter gives a solo at Emma Square this evening.

The free entertainment at the Y. M. C. A. hall this evening commences at 8 o'clock sharp.

The Baltimore Minstrel Troupe show on board the flagship Saturday night, was a great success.

Charles Chillingworth, clerk in the Deputy Marshal's office, returned from Maui on the Helene, Sunday.

Miss Charlotte Fountain of Nawiliwili came to town on the W. G. Hall, Sunday for a visit with friends.

Unless the arrangement miscarries in some way the swimming races will occur in the harbor next Saturday.

Detective Kaapa gave a luau to a number of his friends at his home, Hotel street, on New Year's eve.

The strike of telephone operators did not create much of a stir. There was no interference with the service.

Queen Dowager Kapiolani was out for a short drive yesterday. She listened for a while to the band at Makee Island.

As a builder, nothing excels Malt Nutrine. Per dozen, $3.50; single bottle, 35 cents. Hollister Drug Co., sole agents.

The furniture, etc., of a four-room cottage at 108 Emma street is offered for sale at a sacrifice, if spoken for immediately.

A fine coffee plantation in Kona, Hawaii, is offered for sale by Jas. F. Morgan. A snap for the right party. See advt.

The Daughters of the American Revolution will meet at the residence of Mrs. A. F. Judd this (Monday) morning, at 10 o'clock.

Jas. Steiner had the biggest punch-bowl and biggest lemonade containers in town full on Saturday night for all callers at Hart & Co.'s Ltd.

The Healan Boat club has procured the services of a new janitor, J. Lubbeck, an old sailor and at one time a private in the regular army.

During New Year's day and Sunday, there were 18 cases of drunkenness registered at the Police Station. Few were arrested for other offenses.

There will be no return dingy race between the crews of officers of the Baltimore and Adams, as the latter is to leave this port on Wednesday.

Mr. G. R. Harker, of the Scientific Department in the High school, returned on the Hall yesterday from spending the holidays on Kauai.

Wm. Thompson of the firm of Theo. H. Davies & Co., who left for Maui on a business trip about a month ago, will not be back again to town for a fortnight.

A satchel containing money was found on the Waikiki road during the concert at Makee Island yesterday afternoon. See advertisement for further particulars.

W. R. Riley of Company B, made a 47 at Kakaako butts on Friday. This is the first time he has ever done anything of the kind so, of course, he is very much elated.

Rumor has it that the manager of one of Maui's largest plantations is shortly to become a benedict. The lady in question is a fair one from one of the Southern States.

Galen M. Fisher spoke to young men in the Y. M. C. A. hall yesterday on the subject of the "World's Student Christian Federation." There were quite a number present.

There is talk of a return ball game on Saturday next between the Tararas and Razzie Dazzles. The Tararas are by no means satisfied with the outcome of the New Year's day match.
